Christmas Day

Santa and Kids' Picnic on the Beach

10.00am

Children can expect Santa to arrive by boat, before spending the morning together with a selection of fun activities and a kids' picnic.

Afternoon Tea

4.00pm

Enjoy a selection of tea and coffee served with traditional cakes and Christmas cookies in front of the Library.

Cekepong Performance at the Main Pool

7.00pm

This Balinese version of The Princess and the Frog tells a story of a prince from the Kingdom of Jenggala. It is a traditional classic performed by the Manggis village cultural group.

Family-style Festive Roast Duck at the Restaurant

7.30pm

Today's optional set menu includes a spiced pumpkin soup to start, followed by duck à l'orange, braised cabbage, Paris mash potato and apple salad. To finish the meal, Christmas pudding awaits.

28 December

Komang Mokoh Blues Band, Barbecue and Boogie at the Coconut Grove

7.30pm

Komang Mokoh is arguably the island's best Blues performer. Together with his five-piece band, Mokoh will put on a show to remember – his deep growl and humour never fail to impress and amuse. Tropical attire and flat shoes (or no shoes) are in order as there will be dancing under the palms.

Dinner will be a fun selection of southern-style grills and accompaniments served from our thatched market stalls.

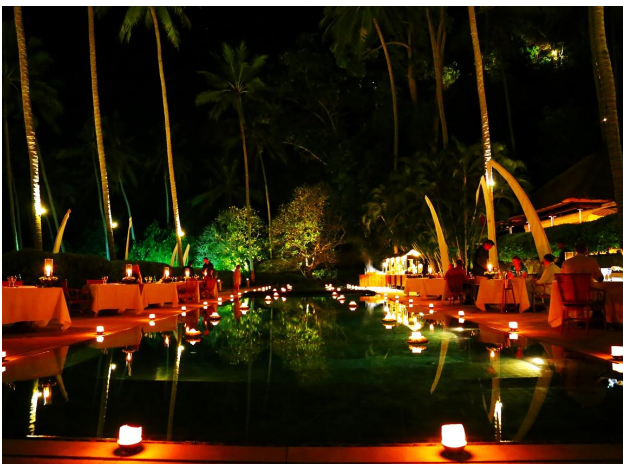

Southern-style Cajun Barbeque

7.30pm

Louisiana crab cakes, buffalo wings, New Orleans-style barbeque ahrimp, Louisiana baby back ribs, chilli corn, jambalaya, Texas-style beef brisket, southern fried chicken, slaw, and assorted desserts await.

31 December

Kecak Dance at the Main Pool

8.00pm

This iconic Balinese dance incorporates a troupe of forty men and depicts an epic battle from the Ramayana scriptures, where the monkey-like Vanara joins Prince Rama in fighting the evil King Ravana. The troupe surrounds a large bonfire and then begin slowly and quietly to chant. A cacophony of "cak cak cak" sounds eventually builds to a powerful crescendo. The chorus of chanting comprises seven different rhythms, each delicately interwoven to create a complex tapestry of sounds.

8-course French Brassiere-style Degustation Menu with paired French Wines

8.30pm

End 2018 in style - Chef Shane and his team are preparing an elaborate menu to impress. The menu will feature live cooking stations with dishes served a la Guéridon for a touch of theatre and flamboyance.

Dinner will commence at 8.30pm and will be paced to take us to 11.00pm when the pre-midnight festivities kick off.

IDR 2,600,000 per person (food only)/IDR 3,550,000 per person (including wine pairing)

IDR 1,300,000 per child (5-12 years)

Fire Dance

11.00pm

After dinner, the festivities continue with a poolside fire show featuring six fire masters who will present a dazzling and dangerous display of movement and coordination. The performance will be accompanied by musicians on traditional instruments, providing pulse and tension as the dancers tempt fate by playing with fire.

Countdown at steps

11.35pm

From 23.35, with midnight fast approaching, we will prepare for the countdown. Jegog, or bamboo marimba, artists will start the build-up that will culminate in a fireworks display as the clock strikes midnight. The deep resonance of their instruments is mesmerising. This particular troupe are travelling all the way from west Bali – a 14-hour round trip – just for the evening!

Party at the Bar

12.00pm

After midnight, the party continues in the Bar, where our Barmen will serve a variety of cocktails, and music will be played late into the night.
